 Priority #1

The Agency for Persons with Disabilities is required by s. 393.502(9), F.S. to conduct annual financial reviews by agency staff for each local Family Care Council (FCC). The Agency's Inspector General's office spends approximately 500 hours each year conducting these reviews at an annual cost of $16,500. Results from these reviews consist of minor findings, usually of an internal procedural nature. If the Agency was not required by statute to conduct these financial reviews each year, these resources could be utilized to respond to serious situations which may arise, including those which may expose clients to financial exploitation, which would require the immediate attention of the Agency's Inspector General's office. The Office of the Inspector General would however retain responsibility for auditing the FCCs, but it would no longer be an annual requirement by statute.

The Agency for Persons with Disabilities is required by Specific Authority ss. 393.501(1) and 393.067, F.S., and Administrative Rule 65G-2.0032 (2) Agency Monitoring and Oversight, to monitor licensed group homes at least once per month. There are currently 1,696 group homes licensed by the Agency at this time. It takes an average of 2 hours in inspection and travel time to inspect each group home.

On average, 20% of these homes consistently exceed set standards and have no material findings upon inspection. If the administrative rule was changed to allow high performing group homes to be monitored less frequently, specifically, on a quarterly basis, the agency could use these resources to increase the frequency of monitoring group homes with significant findings to ensure remediation is being completed as prescribed.

This change would result in an average savings of $75,668 which could be redirected toward additional monitoring of lower performing group homes and ensuring the health and safety of our clients.

The Agency for Persons with Disabilities currently has staff in each of its 6 Regions and in the state office who perform payment verification and processing for client services through the Allocation Budgeting and Contracting (ABC) system.

Due to increasing demands on regional staff to meet client health and safety standards, the agency proposes to centralize the ABC processing functions within the state office. The resources currently performing these functions in the regions would then be reassigned to critical needs areas within their regions.

This change would result in approximately $130,000 which could be redirected toward filling critical needs functions to ensure the health and safety of our clients.
