AGENCY ISSUE NARRATIVE:

SCHED VIIIC REPRIORTIZN NARRATIVE:

IT COMPONENT? NO

Priority #1

The newly-created Schedule VIIIC mandated by the FY 2014-2015 LBR instructions appears to have little applicability to The Department of Legal Affairs/ Attorney General. The LBR instructions require agencies to submit a Schedule VIIIC, which:

". . .identifies programs, services, functions and activities that are currently being performed that may no longer be the highest and best use of state or federal resources and provides an opportunity for an agency to recommend how those resources could be directed within the agency to other programs, services, functions, and activities. . ."

The Attorney General is the Chief Legal Officer for the State of Florida. The Office of the Attorney General is composed of several units each of whose chief goal is to economically and efficiently provide the highest quality legal services to the State of Florida and its agencies for the benefit of all Floridians.

Specific responsibilities enumerated in Article 4, Section 4 of the Florida Constitution and in Chapter 16, Florida Statutes, have been expanded through the years by the Florida Legislature and by amendment of the Constitution, for the protection of the public's interests. The functions of the Office of the Attorney General range across the legal landscape, from Capital Appeals and Medicaid Fraud, to Child Support Enforcement and Economic Crimes.

The Department of Legal Affairs has twenty eight activities identified in the Long Range Program plan. These activities are divided among four programs.

- Victims Services
- Criminal and Civil Litigation
- Statewide Prosecution
- Florida Elections Commission

The activities funded with General Revenue include:

- Cabinet Support Services
- Capital Appeals
- Non-capital Criminal Appeals
- Civil Rights
- Sexual Predator Civil Commitment Appeals
- Solicitor General And Complex Litigation

The Attorney General currently has adequate budget flexibility to shift funds between these activities and address any priority changes she identifies within these activities. There is no need to reduce in one area and shift to another as provided by the Schedule VIIIC.

The following activities are funded with federal funds and are not considered for the Schedule VIIIC:

Medicaid Fraud Control Unit
 Victim Compensation
 Grants-Victims Of Crime Advocacy
 Victim Notification

The remaining activities of the Department of Legal Affairs are funded with trust funds dedicated to the activities provided. In most cases, it is not permitted or appropriate to transfer funds generated for one of these activities to another activity. In other cases, the activity, such as providing Civil Legal Assistance, generates the funds based on the provision of the activity. These trust funded activities include:
